

To Whom It May Concern

Polar Industries Ltd. is a design / build refrigeration contractor and cold storage constructor. Polar not only manufactures refrigeration equipment, but we frequently are involved in the construction of the facilities in which it is installed. Because of the diversity of what we do we strongly rely on the support of our supply chain to make our jobs easier for us.

For Polar, Rizford Enterprises Ltd. serves as our "one stop shop" for all types of metal products whether they are supplied only, machined, fabricated, welded or constructed and installed on site. Their services are very useful for us as we cannot do everything we need for our customers in house. We find Rizford's customer service excellent and their prices very competitive.

For these reasons we would not hesitate to recommend the services of Rizford Enterprises to any of our partners in the industry.
